How to get to Brussels from Brussels Airport (Zaventem – Brussels-National) (BRU)

When you arrive at Brussels Airport, there are several ways to reach Brussels:

1. Taxi

   Taxis with a taximeter are permanently available in front of the arrivals hall. The fare from the airport to the city centre of Brussels is normally around € 45. Licensed taxis can be recognized by the blue and yellow emblem.

2. Car rental & car-sharing

   In the arrivals hall you will find the desks of the major car rental companies.

   To return you rental car please follow the dedicated signage. The rental car entrance is located left of the access road to the airport, in the direction of Front Park 1. Please keep in mind that the administrative procedure to return a rental car takes about 10 minutes.

3. Train & Bus

The airport train station is located below the terminal (basement level-1) at a small distance from the arrivals hall (2nd floor) and the departures hall (3rd floor).
Brussel-Central: 17 min

Visit thetrain.be to consult the schedules or buy a ticket.

The bus station is located on level 0 - one floor down from the arrivals hall - and can be easily reached by using the escalators or elevators. All MIVB/STIB buses depart from platform C.

The Airport Line is an 30-minute express service between Brussels Airport and the European quarter, at a stone's throw from the uptown shops. From Monday to Friday 8 pm the Airport Line is operated as an express service with number 12 and only serves the major stops.

On weekdays after 8 pm, and the whole day on Saturday, Sunday and holidays the Airport Line is operated as a regular service with number 21, serving all stops. In order to save time and money, buy your ticket from the GO ticket vending machines before boarding. These machines accept Maestro bank cards, credit cards and coins. Tickets bought from the driver are more expensive.

For real time information, you can visit the mobile website m.stib.be or download the STIB app for iPhone or Android (available in English).
